

Musashi International School is looking for a committed, resilient, and collaborative teacher with a solid educational background in Japanese Elementary education. The candidate should be willing to work in Tokyo at a Cambridge Curriculum School teaching the Japanese National Curriculum. We are searching for someone able to work in a multicultural environment who is flexible and capable of teaching any elementary grade level.

General Qualifications, Skills, and Experience Required:

- Fluent in English and Japanese
- Bachelor's degree in education (preferred)
- Teaching certificate (preferred)
- 保育士免許 (preferred)
- At least 3 years of successful teaching experience at the elementary level
- Teaching experience in a cross-cultural environment (preferred)
- Commitment and motivation toward continual professional development
- Knowledgeable of the different pedagogical approaches in teaching in

Professional Responsibilities:

- Planning and instructing elementary Japanese lessons with the Japanese National Curriculum
- Planning and instructing small groups of non-native Japanese students
- Enforcing classroom management and school policies
- Assessing and accommodating students' learning needs and styles
- Promote the welfare of children and support the school in safeguarding children through relevant policies and procedures.

Contract start date:
August 2025

Working Hours:

- Monday to Friday, 8:00 am-4:30 pm
- 40 hours per week

Benefits:

- Health Insurance
- Social Insurance
- Social Pension
- Visa Renewal Sponsorship
- Employment Insurance
- Paid Leave [5 days]
- Paid sick leave [5 days]
- Transportation costs covered
- Professional Development opportunities

Holidays:

- Saturday and Sunday Off
- National/Public Holidays
- 10 weeks of school holidays